THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 19.

AN INTERESTING BAPTISM .- "Old Christ Church," in Lancaster county, Virginia, was ecently (during a convocation of clergymen of the Northern Neck,) the scence of a most interesting baptismal ceremony. An observer on the occasion gives the following discription:

"The ample shade of the grand old walnut gees was soon shared by an immense concourse people, and ere the hour arrived, every seat and resting place, and nook, was filled. There was a secret influence prevading the minds of that multitude, saying, in the silence of their hearts. There was a secret influence prevading the minds of that multitude, saying, in the silence of their hearts, 'your fathers for generations past have worshipped within these venerable and majestic walls.' The services of the day were very

The pure white old Italian marble font, of three feet diameter: was to be used. Mark S. Ashburne was baptized, and then he presented his little boy. "Name this child," was pronounced by the ector officiating. All was still in that large old church, as the Standing congregation had every eye riveted on the fontal scene. But what a death-like silence came over them when the father answered for "His name is JEFFERSON DAVIS!" The minister faltered as he slowly pronounced hat name. Tears bedewed many cheeks as they tickled down; hearts were bleeding, batde-fields, the buried dead, the casemate and the prisoner—this was the scene that came before our minds.—Norfolk Virginian.

CF NEW YORK. ESETS, over $16,000,000.

To meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amout in-tured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agree ng that in lieu of the payment of the policy ne profits in one sum, an equitable amount, to he determined by the Company, may be paid cannually or semi-annually for any specified number of years, (say from five to twenty-five

EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000, with additions amounting to $5,000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the berson insured, the Company, in lieu of the exment of $15,000 in one sum, would be able o give (assuming interest as realized in the past) n annuity for ten years of over $2,000 per anrum, or for twenty years an annuity of over

.339 oer annum. This form of anouity will remove the anxiety thich may exist in the minds of some policy olders lest the future provision they nave made or their fami ies should be ineffectual or transiory in its duration, either through unsafe inextments, unwise expenditure, or other uncersincies inciden al to contingent trusts.

It is not only free from the ordinary dangers of investment, but its punctual and full paynant is secured by the large and solid each retources and good faith of this institution, which hus to a certain extent, becomes the guardian or trustee of the survivors. Hence the provision mry be considered, humanly speaking, beyond ny adverse contingency.

All such deferred payments or annuities ill shere equ tably in the profits or dividends of the Company.

This Company also issues Survivorship An-·uities, which provide for survivors during the Thole period of life, and Deferred Annuities, by which individuals may provide for themselves | taining particulars address,

The undersigned begs to call the attention of hose who desire to make provision f r their lamilies, to the advantages offered by the above REGRIFICENT INSTITUTION. There is no way n which a small sum of money can be so profitably and securely invested, for such a purpose, as in a policy on your life. FORTY-FIVE CENTS week will insure $1,000 on the life of a man eged 30, and the payment of a single premium secures (and at once) a very much larger sum than he investment of the same amount could possi-Ely do in the ordinary operations of trade. R. Fendall, defendants.
The decree of June 2d, 1866, of the Circuit Court of Alexandria County, in this cause, directs that one of the master commissioners of said Court do inquire and report to the next term of the Court as follows:

First. As to the amount of indebtedness from Isaac Newton to Benjamin O. Tayloe and Wm. H Tayloe, by virtue of his original liability for his purchase from them of the tract of land in the bill and proceedings mentioned, with subsequent reductions thereo!, stating amounts and Second. What security the said Tayloes had for their original debt; how, when, and to what extent, that security has been diminished. Third. What payments have been made by the defendant, John Naglee, ir., on his purchase from Isaac Newton, of the 1210 acres of land in the bill and proceeding mentioned, and what amount still remains unpaid to said Newton on said purchase. Fourth. The value and sufficiency of the se-curity to the said Tayloes for the existing indebtedness of Isaac Newton to them, independent of the mortgage to him from John Naglee, jr., for $12,000, in the one aspect, and also in the other aspect of regarding said mortgage as part of the security to the said Tayloes.

Fifth. Whether the said Tayloes are willing to Fifth. Whether the said Tayloes are willing to release so much of their security as incumbers the land sold by said Newton to said Naglee, and if not willing, whether their security is not abundant and adequate, without resort to the land so sold by Newton to Naglee

Sixth. The present situation, character, condition, and title of the property, in the bill and proceedings mentioned, situated in Philadelphia and New Jersey, sold by said Naglee to said Newton, and which he contracted to convey to Newton, and which he contracted to convey to said Newton, as also its condition at the date of said contract, on the 12th day of March, 1861; the sufficiency of the deeds from said Naglee to said Newton, in the hands of Philip R. Fendall; also, what liens and incumbrances, and the character thereof, upon said projecty.

Seventh. The rents and profits from said Philade phia and New Jersey property, received by the said John Naglee, jr., since the date of the contract (March 12th, 1861,) between him and Isaac Newton.

and Isaac Newton. Eighth. That the said Commissioner take any other account that he may deem necessary, or which either party may require, in view and furtherance of the foregoing inquiries, and that in taking said account, the said parties Isaac Newton and John Naglee, jr . may examine each other on oath before the said Commissioner, as to any of matters referred to in this decree. COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, Alexandria, Va., June 30, 1806.
